Package _Business_

Class Detail

Class _Employee_

package: Business

```
public class Employee
```

Contains information on an employee within the system including username and passwords to log in, and basic employee information such as first and last name.

Field Summary
private boolean	active The active state of the employee.
private Date	birthDate The birthday of the employee.
private String	email The email at which the employee can be contacted.
private int	empID The ID number of the employee within the system.
private String	familyName The family name of the employee.
private String	givenName The given name of the employee.
private Date	lastLogin Holds the last day and time that the employee logged in.
private Location	lnkLocation
private Notification	lnkNotification Employees will receive and view notifications that are sent automatically, or manually sent by their supervisor.
private PermissionSet	lnkPermissionLevel All employees have an assigned permission set that determines employee-specific permissions within the system regarding what they can and can't access, as well as numerical values relating to time off.
private Position	lnkPosition
private Skill	lnkSkill
private String	password The password that the employee uses to log into the system.
private PermissionSet	plevel The current permission level of the employee, tied to a permission set.
private Location	prefLocation The preferred location within the business that the employee will be working in.
private Position	prefPosition The preferred position that the employee will be working in.
private int	supervisorID The supervisor of the employee.
private String	username The username that the employee uses to log into the system.